

RandomKid Privacy Statement

RandomKid has created this privacy statement ("Statement") in order to demonstrate our commitment to the privacy of visitors to the RandomKid website (the "Site"). Privacy on the Site is of great importance to us. Because we gather important information from our visitors, we have established this Statement as a means to communicate our information-gathering and dissemination practices. We reserve the right to change this Statement and will provide notification of the change at least thirty (30) days prior to the change taking effect. The use of this Site is conditioned upon acceptance of this Statement. RandomKid is the only operator of this Site and its contact information can be found below.

Information We Collect

We require visitors to our Site who would like to learn more, become volunteers, or submit ideas through our Site (collectively, the "Service") to give us contact information, such as their name, address, phone number, e-mail address and school information.

RandomKid uses the information that we collect in various manners, depending on the inquiry. In some instances, we provide requested information and in the other instances, we assist in coordinating volunteer opportunities or assist in initiating service projects. We may also use the information to contact visitors to further discuss interest in RandomKid, the Service that we provide, and to send information regarding RandomKid, such as promotions and events. We may also email information regarding updates to the Service or RandomKid and may send a newsletter. Except in the case we explicitly state at the time we request information, we do not disclose to third parties the information provided. Visitor email addresses and any personal customer information will never be distributed or shared with third parties.

Information We Collect from Children

We respect the privacy of children and do not collect any more personal information than reasonably necessary to enable them to participate in the Services we offer at our Site.

We collect the following types of personal information directly from children (under the age of 13) online: e-mail address; first and last name; state and/or country in which they reside; telephone number; school name and website; other identifiers that permit physical or online contact; and an identifier such as a customer number held in a cookie. We do not have any agreements with outside organizations to collect personal information at our Site.

How We Use Information We Collect from Children

The information we collect from children is used for fulfillment of a requested transaction; to respond to children's specific requests to participate in activities; subscription to an online newsletter; voting in polls or otherwise expressing an opinion and/or possibly to tailor/customize their experience at our Site.

We do not share children's personal information with any third parties other than persons who provide support for the internal operations of the Site. (e.g., contractors who provide fulfillment services or technical support to the Site). All third parties with whom we share information have agreed to maintain security and integrity of personal information.

Parental Review

Parents can review the information that we have collected from their children online, prohibit us from using such information, or direct that we delete such information by e-mailing us at the email address provided below.

Cookies

When you interact with the Site we strive to make that experience easy and interactive. When you come to our Site, our web server sends a cookie to your computer. Cookies are files that web browsers place on a computer's hard drive and are used to tell us whether customers and visitors have visited the Site previously.

Cookies do not identify you personally, rather they recognize your browser. Unless you choose to identify yourself to RandomKid in some manner, you remain anonymous to RandomKid. Cookies come in two varieties: session and persistent-based. Session cookies exist only during an online session. They disappear from your computer when you close your browser software or turn off your computer. Persistent cookies remain on your computer after you've closed your browser or turned off your computer. They include such information as a unique identifier for your browser.

Third Party Cookies: We may from time to time engage third parties to compile and analyze statistical information regarding visitors to our Site in order to help us administer our Site and improve its quality. Such third parties may use cookies to help track visitor behavior. Such cookies will not be used to associate individual Site visitors to any personally identifiable information. All data collected by such third parties on behalf of RandomKid is used only to provide us with information on website usage and is not shared with any other third parties.

Third-Party Sites

The Site may contain links to other websites. RandomKid is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of these other websites. Visitors will need to check the policy statement of these other websites to understand their policies. Visitors who access a linked website may be disclosing their private information. It is the responsibility of the user to keep such information private and confidential.

Opt-Out Policy

RandomKid offers its visitors a means to choose how we may use information provided. If, at any time after registering for information or ordering the Service, you change your mind about receiving information from us or about sharing your information with third party, send us a request specifying your new choice. Simply send your request to optout@randomkid.org.

Correcting and Updating Your Information

If customers need to update or change registration information they may do so by editing the user record. If you want to delete your account, please email delete@randomkid.org, and your account information will be deleted within 30 days.

Additional Information

Questions regarding this Statement or the practices of this Site or any other questions or concerns should be directed to RandomKid's Security Administrator by e-mailing such questions to privacy@randomkid.org or by regular mail addressed to RandomKid, P.O. Box 102 Waukee, IA 50263-0102
