RandomKid

"The Power of Anyone"

www.randomkid.org

The Spark, The Wildfire Momentum

In 2005 the USA experienced its worst natural disaster--EVER! RandomKids everywhere reached out to help. Combining their uniquely RandomTalent--kids across America reported into www.halloweenhelpers.blogspot.com, having raised over $3 Million dollars in just over two months! One nickel, one quarter--one RandomKid, one RandomIdea at a time. And they haven't stopped! Every day new reports of children creating their own fundraising effort for the hurricane relief charity of their choice are reported in to this national tally. These kids inspired the creation of a non-profit organization called www.randomkid.org. Randomkid.org expands on the idea of the "Power of Anyone." By creating opportunities for children across the USA to tap into a variety of resources, RandomKid will allow children's unique abilities to shine as bright as they can and solve real-world problems while doing it.

Mission: To empower kids to realize the infinite value of who they are right now and their unique power to make the world a better place because of it.

Services: RandomKid will provide a variety of services to schools, youth groups, non-profits and corporations. Perhaps one of the most exciting services to come is utilizing technology to match kids who want to do something positive for themselves or their communities with someone who can provide them the tools to do it. From consulting and facilitation in support of fundraising, to rallying youth around a variety of initiatives, RandomKid will help harness the individual power of each amazing kid.

Products:

RandomKid will showcase the talents (tshirt design, artwork, music, etc.) of RandomKids everywhere. Kids will make money while making a name for themselves, with a small portion of the proceeds to be reinvested back into RandomKid.

One feature that is sure to be a hit with RandomKids everywhere:RandomRockStar

At any RandomTime, RandomKids.org may decide to make one of their registered RandomKids a RandomRockstar. If that happens, the parents and the school will have to give permission for the kid to be celebrated in RockStar fashion. Sponsors will be asked to participate by giving that child a day he or she will never forget. Picture a child walking into his gymnasium to a full assembly of the student body giving him/her a standing ovation. The media is there. Perhaps local and/or national celebrities are on hand. The RandomKid is given his/her trophy RandomRockStar sunglasses and perhaps other items tailored to his or her interests and talents. And of course, no RockStar should leave school unless it's in a Limousine!

Non-Profit: RandomKid is an Iowa non-profit company and we are currently in the process of filing our paperwork for 501(c)(3) status with the IRS. Our attorneys tell us they have every reason to believe that we will be approved as a 501(c)(3) organization--at which point all donations made to RandomKid would be tax deductible, including donations made now and prior to the receipt of our approval as a 501(c)(3) organization. If, however, the IRS does not approve our application for 501(c)(3) status, donations would not be tax deductible.
